

Terry Fox Humanitarian Award

Deadline – February 1, 2018

Value – up to $28,000

Details: Suitable candidates are students who demonstrate the ideals of Terry Fox – true humanitarians; individuals who are compassionate and altruistic in their intention to improve the lives of others and human welfare overall. These students are “doers” with the ability to inspire and make a positive impact on the lives of others. Serious consideration is given the extent to which candidates have experienced and overcome what others might consider an insurmountable obstacle, yet are dedicated to helping others. Courage and humanitarianism of the student will be weighed heaviest in the application consideration process.

Eligibility Criteria:

- In good academic standing.
- Canadian citizens or landed immigrants.
- Students graduating from secondary (high) school or students completing their first year of CÉGEP or students who have completed secondary (high) school
- Involved in voluntary humanitarian activities (for which they have not been compensated).
- Planning to or are already studying towards their first university degree or diploma at a Canadian post-secondary institution, or entering their 2nd year of CÉGEP in the upcoming academic year.
